

MARDENIT

RURAL Í MODERN

RAVINE /
"ESTRET DE LES PENYES"

SEASON: ALL YEAR

DESCRIPTION

The entrance to the ravine is usually dry, because the water filters directly to the riverbed. From this point onward, the ravine closes on itself and is a beautiful large natural corridor, distinguished by its numerous upwellings of warm waters which make the descent much more enjoyable. After heavy rain, the upwellings of the ravine increase considerably the flow of the ravine's entrance.. To sum it up, it is a short but very beautiful descent, which peculiarity resides in its thermal waters.
